Salina Regional Abolition Conference

October 21 | 3:30pm - 8:00PM

KANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY - SALINA

2310 Centennial Road | Salina KS | 67401

Join us for the Salina Regional Abolition Conference! We have two sessions and everyone is welcome to participate in one or both of the sessions!

Session One: 3:30pm-5:00pm:

This session will consist of rotating workshops featuring Darryl Burton, keynote speaker; Carolyn Zimmerman, daughter of a murder victim; and other local experts on the issue of capital punishment.

Check in at the Technology Center for room location.

Session Two: 6:30pm-8:00pm:

This session will consist of a keynote address given by Darryl Burton, a Missouri exoneree who spent 24 years in prison for a crime he did not commit. Come hear his story and learn about how you can get involved in the effort to repeal the death penalty in Kansas!

Located in the College Center Conference Room.

We hope to see you there!
